Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2018:
18–25 January
THAT ALL MAY BE FREE

Material for 2018 was produced in the Caribbean and uses Exodus 15, a song of triumph over oppression, as the motif of the Week of Prayer.

The churches of the Caribbean region describe to us their own context, how the hand of God was active in ending slavery, and how God’s mission in the world is a call to us all to unite together in ending injustice, that which casts a shadow from the past and current forms of injustice such as poverty, trafficking and discrimination. This particular Caribbean experience is a challenge to us in our context to reflect more deeply on the injustices in our own nations in Britain and Ireland which create the divisions that impede our participation in God’s mission, with the call to actively work to end all division.

 Sunday 21 January : Joint Service at St John’s at 6pm

 Monday 22-Friday 26 January : Lunchtime prayers 12 noon at St John’s

Circuit Memorial Service : Sunday 28
January 6pm at Brigham Methodist Church with Rev Sue Edwards

An opportunity to remember a loved one’s life and to show the love of God. Just come and listen, light a candle, share time with one another and offer prayers. Stay afterwards for light refreshments and conversation. Everyone is most welcome.

Do you enjoy writing letters?

Sue has received a letter from a lady who lives in Sidmouth, Devon, who loves Keswick and the surrounding area. She wonders whether any members of our congregation would be interested in corresponding with her - a sort of pen pal arrangement. If you think you'd like to do, please have a chat with Sheila (79253) for more details.

Oberammergau August 2020:

Would you like to visit the Oberammergau Passion Play in 2020? If you're interested in finding out more about this holiday (no commitment at this stage), then come to an informal get together with coffee and nibbles in Keswick Methodist Church on Saturday, 17 February from 10am 'til 12noon. Please contact us for more information or to let us know you're coming to the event.
